

BYU Jerusalem Center Alumni Seder

2023 Guest Performers

Steve and Lisa James Family

Steve and Lisa James have performed before millions; entertaining audiences at international, national, and local events, concerts, and conferences. They are often joined by their talented children, Adam, Alyssa, Eric, and Brittany.

Known for her angelic voice, Lisa grew up in Minnesota, where she studied voice and won the Miss Minnesota talent award. Steve grew up in California and Utah. After serving a mission in Panama and Costa Rica, he became Deseret Book's first artist for Shadow Mountain Music and traveled for many years speaking at CES programs. They met each other at a singles conference in Iowa and were married in the Salt Lake Temple.

Executive Producer of various television specials, Steve is also CEO of Something Good Inc., Steve James Productions, and Executive Director of "Uplift Families." He and Lisa are founders of ResilientYOU and have recorded hundreds of original songs, including their national award-winning series of children's music, "Something Good for Kids."

FM100 Christmas artists for more than a decade and featured on the annual TV special "Hope for the Holidays," the James Family continues their work performing, recording, filming, and producing for live events, social media platforms, and television.

